[22/01/18][16:46:04] -

Title: Books of Britannia

Author: TG Press

Britannia is definitely the place for booklovers and writers to enjoy. Not only are there NPC published tomes, but other travelers such as yourself have taken it upon themselves to dip
their pens in the ink
from time to time.
From "how to"
manuals to compendia of information to great novels to even poetry and song, writers from far and near pen their tales and thoughts for your enjoyment.

This volume will give you some information about mainly the NPC published titles. If you wish to visit some of the finest Britannian original works, feel free to use our rune library and take a tour of the Player Book Libraries around the land (4th book down in the bookcase on the left).

Khaldun Journals :
Three hapless visitors to the Khaldun Dungeon left their journals as a warning to all who might enter the thrill-filled dungeon. Each journal lasted a different number of days due to... well I'll let you find out the reason for yourself when you read their enthralling account of the events there.

Originally, bits and pieces of these journals were scattered throughout the ravaged tunnels. We, at Treasured Goods, have collected them all and handcopied them into a compact, yet fully documented, collection. The original volumes were full of blank pages. Our collection includes each and every entry in their entirety, but by having eliminated the empty pages, we have been able to condense the collection to six volumes. They are available for purchase on our vendor here.

NPC Published Titles: There were originally 29 different titles available at the provisioner shops and in libraries around Britannia. Two of them are no longer spawning, but are available to be copied by scribes. The other 27 titles are still available for purchase at any provisioner shop and occasionally seen in libraries around the land. If you wish to purchase these non-rare NPC books, simply inquire with the provisioner. The books you will wish to purchase are the small dark brown books and the larger white books. They appear without a title until you actually open the book to begin reading. At that time, the title then appears magickally and will remain on the book. There is no way to tell which title you are purchasing until after you have paid the provisioner. Each vendor rotates the selections, so you can effectively purchase all 27 volumes from the same provisioner, although you might have to do a bit of selling back and re-buying. The books you buy back may not be the same volumes you sold the vendor. Each vendor will only offer one color of published book, so if you are trying to complete a library in all white, for example, you might have to check around with several provisioners to see which carry the white books. Here is a complete list of available NON-rare

NPC published books :

Beltran's Guide to Guilds
Birds of Britannia
The Bold Stranger
Britannia Flora: A
  Casual Guide
The Burning of Trinsic
Classic Children's Tales, Volume 2 Classic Tales of Vesper, Volume 1 Deceit: A Dungeon of Horrors
Dimensional Travel
Ethical Hedonism
The Fight
A Grammar of Orcish
The Life of A Traveling Minstrel
The Major Trade
  Associations
My Story
On The Diversity of Our Land
A Politic Call to Anarchy
A Primer on Arms &
  Weapons
Rankings of Trades
Regarding Llamas
A Song of Samlethe
A Tale of Three Tribes
Talking to Wisps
Taming Dragons
Treatise on Alchemy
Virtue Wild Girl of The Forest

The two no-longer spawning rare volumes are :

Classic Children's Tales, Volume 1 Phonemes of The Orcish Tongue

Both of the rare volumes are available here at TG.

Provisioners also carry two other types of books. The lighter brown book that looks just like the newbie book you received when you began this journey, and the blue books. Both can be locked down, but they have different purposes. The light brown book, once locked down, can be written in by anyone...thus it makes a perfect "order" book or "message" book. Your visitors can add their comments whenever they wish, although the books cannot be written in while stocked on a vendor.

The blue books are used more for information. When locked down, the contents cannot be written over, which makes it a wonderful tool for shops and libraries or even private homes if you wish to leave information that will not be disturbed.

Many are used as directories or catalogs in shops, so don't forget to read them whenever you see them locked down.
Most owners won't lock a book down unless they have something to say.

Do stop in from time to time and peruse our own TG Press
Original Publications.
Alysanne is busy writing more books for the shop, although she doesn't have as much time to devote to her craft as she'd like.

If you're a bookworm,
enjoy a visit to some of the libraries
around the land dedicated to originally published works.
(the Museum in Mythndale is one of my favorite book haunts!)
Treasured Goods
Shoppe & Library
of Malas, 30o51'N, 25o44'W